

Become a Counselor In Training Today

Integrated into Camp Fun Quest Summer Day Camp, the Counselor in Training is a volunteer opportunity to assist teens looking to gain practical work skills. A very important part of the program's operation, CIT's assists camp staff with day to day activities. It is great way to gain insight by working with others, and to earn community service hours. Applications available in person or online beginning Monday April 8, must be submitted in person to the Oscar Johnson, Jr. Community Center by Monday, May 6 for consideration. New non-refundable registration fee of $100 for the summer will help cover associated cost. Fee is not due until selections are made.
