

If you live in Montgomery County, the fifth fastest growing county in the state, your water comes from the Gulf Coast Aquifer – a groundwater reservoir that provides water to 54 Texas counties. As our population increases, so does the demand for this water source.

For more information, visit www.WaterIQ.org.

Your water doesn't just fall from the sky.

Water Issues: MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Lone Star Groundwater Conservation District