Additional Information:

1. It is the responsibility of the project general contractor to manage their project. The CFD will not perform additional inspections, due to project mismanagement and/or external time pressures placed on the general contractor.
2. Failed inspections may require payment of a re-inspection fee, prior to scheduling.